

PLANET HELL is a new band from Przemek and Jozef from a Thrash Metal band called THE NO MADS. But this time we`re dealing with something, musically speaking, of a different sort. The overwhelmingly complex and twisted structure of this material oscillates somewhere among a number of stylistically different genres: death, black metal as well as progressive rock. Lyrics are very interesting, deal with Science Fiction themes and motives (highly inspired by Stanislaw Lem`s works) and ought to be deemed as a conceptual entity.

This material is officially out in early November, so stay alert!!!!!!!
