

The debut album of Peruvian GOAT SEMEN "Ego Svm Satana" is a piece of fucking destructive black/death and total fucking massacre. We have had to wait for 15 years, indeed, to see this material come out, but, trust me, this stuff will please even the pickiest worshippers of Hell itself. The dirty and filthy sound of this album reeks of cadaveric stench of crumbling graves. This stuff, right from its beginning, infects our minds with a storm of Infernalvibrations. Filthy, merciless music of theirs whips like a scourge ripping off chunks of human flesh and squirting massive amounts of blood. Don't expect no mercy or tenderness here!

I need to say this music is thoroughly suffused with Evilness. There are some influences from early SARCOFAGO and this fact'll please many of you. Additionally, this stuff was sung in these guys' mother tongue, and thus this album sounds even more Diabolical. When I listen to "Ego Svm Satana" I can feel the breath of death on my back. Yeah, it is a total devastation and uncompromising massacre. These sounds are able to annihilate a listener and turn him into ashes instantly. A real devastation!! Music, simple to the bone and full of the cadaveric venom, just devastates anything there is in its way. No mercy, no compassion. Death and destruction! For fuck's sake, this stuff is just awesome! 666. LWS.
