Well, the way I reacted to this material was beyond my expectations, really. I just couldn't remember when I had been so moved by another album previously. This stuff just oozes with its cadaveric atmosphere, the filthy sound of theirs blends with music rich in sounds and result in a truly explosive mixture. This is this year's one of the most interesting materials. MARTWA AURA is one of these bands which, I gather, is going to be really successful. And I am pretty sure they don't care about it, I mean their success, at all. Simply, they play awesome music that one listens to at once, blushing. The album's more atmospheric elements with well interwoven faster and catchy parts are doing really well. You just can't get bored while listening to this stuff. MARTWA AURA is as destructive as MGŁA, PLAGA or KRIEGSMASCHINE. It was clearly hearable on their 7" split release with SZRON, but this "Contra Mundi Conta Vita" album has just killed me totally. LWS
