

Terror From Hell Prod The debut demo of Gdansk's PUTRID EVIL was released this year but this fact should not fool you. What we're dealing with here are a bunch of fuckos who're crazy about ol' good death meatal school. PUTRID EVIL gentlemen do not hide they're fascinated with early Repulsion/Terrorizer or Desecration, just listen to „Massgrave Overtortures”. Nothing new but destructive as fuck. Well, these guys don't give a fuck about playing original music. They play what they like. The way it ought to be. This music is honest as fuck, yeah. Noticeable is the filthy, raw and vey obscure sound. This stuff is 100% natural. This sounds pretty much like late 80s. There is plenty of venom and energy in this demo. 8 tracks of old school fucking awesomeness. Fuck yeah, right in your filthy mug! The way this material is released is noteworthy. It is nice to hold it in your hands. Terror From Hell Prod. has unleashed a fully professional demo on a green pro-tape with printed covers. And the quality of the music is really ok. I am so damn happy that vinyl and tape formats are back – coz, you know, ONLY ANALOG IS REAL!
